FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – YEAR A 8th FEBRUARY 2026

Missal P590 Order of the Mass P470

PRIEST'S CORNER:

It is with heart full of joy that I join Father Jamie to invite everyone to his book launch which will take place in the hall after the 6.00 p.m Mass on Saturday 14th February and also on Sunday 15th February at St Finbarr's after 11am Mass. We have long waited for this book and thank God that it is out now. The book shares something of Father Jamie's spiritual journey making it a helpful resource for this coming Lent. In his kindness to the Parish of Good the Shepherd and special love for the youth, he has promised that all proceeds from the book will go towards supporting our young people to go to the World Youth Day in Seoul South Korea in 2027. I therefore encourage every family to support this noble project which is for the growth of faith in our parishes. Fr. Gabriel.

INDUCTION OF FR. GABRIEL With joy we announce the date for the induction of Fr Gabriel as the parish priest of the Good Shepherd parish by Bishop Paul Hendricks. It will be on Thursday 16th of April 2026 with a Mass at 6pm. We invite all of you for this memorable celebration.

GOSPEL REFLECTION: Jesus in using the salt and light to describe his followers gave an indication that they will have many good attributes of life that will differentiate them in the world. Salt possesses different qualities which go beyond making food tasty as it can be used for preservation and can be used for healing wounds. Light obviously dispels darkness. How do we give nice taste to the world and dispel darkness? Isaiah has known the answer before Jesus challenged his followers to be the salt and light of the world. He explains that by feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, consoling those in pains and being kind to others that we give nice taste to the world. We can preserve the quality of life of others by being kind and making sure that we help the next generation to continue being kind to others. We can heal the wounds of the world by being the listening empathic ear, being the voice that speaks against injustice in the society and the voice that brings hope to those that are discouraged. By standing for truth we shine brightly in the world. What is the yardstick we can use to measure if we are the salt and the light of the world? We are the salt and the light of the world when those who are hungry, thirsty, naked, in search of truth and justice think of us, come to us and receive help as much as we can give. Their world becomes tasty and darkness turns into light.

PLEASE PRAY FOR Carol Smye-Rumsby, Paul's wife and mother of Nicola, Sarah & Anthony who passed away suddenly on Thursday; For Neil Stevens, son of Len & Bernadette, who passed away in China. A memorial service will be arranged for Neil at St Paul's; For Arthur James (Jim) Graves, father of Bridget Graves from Aylesham. Arthur's funeral service will take place on Monday 23rd February at 11am followed by interment at Aylesham Cemetery; For Iris (Tilly) Ball from St Paul's who died on 29th January; and David Meadows, St Paul's gardener. Funeral details to follow. May they Rest in Peace and Rise in Glory. Amen.

THANK YOU FOR THE LOVE AND SUPPORT AT MY SEND-FORTH.

Dear Beloved Parishioners and Friends in Dover and Aylesham,

I write with a heart full of gratitude to say thank you for the truly massive outpouring of love shown to me during my send-forth event last week. Your presence, prayers, kind words, generous gifts, and thoughtful organizations made the occasion deeply moving and unforgettable. I felt genuinely carried by the love of the community, and I am profoundly grateful to God for blessing me with such a warm, faith-filled parish.

Thank you to everyone who worked behind the scenes, those who planned, cooked, sang, prayed, and those who simply came to share the moment. Each gesture, big or small, spoke volumes. You reminded me once again that our Church is not just a place, but a family. I think of the many children (and their parents) who prepared so hard in Dover and Aylesham to dance and sing for the occasion; St. Richard's school, St. Josephs and St. Edmund's; I am grateful. To Fr. Gabriel, Fr. Jamie, Deacon Barry and Mary, I have no words. Thank you. I see you all and Jesus sees you.

As I move on to the next chapter of my journey in Manchester, I carry Dover in my heart. I am an apostle of Dover and I will continue to spread the love wherever I go. Be assured of my continued prayers for you all, and I ask that you keep me in yours as well. May the Lord bless you abundantly. With deep gratitude and affection, Fr. Leo Illah, CSSp.

CATECHISM – HUMAN VIRTUES (1)

Four virtues play a pivotal role and accordingly are called "cardinal"; all the others are grouped around them. They are prudence, justice, fortitude, and temperance. "If anyone loves righteousness, [Wisdom's] labours are virtues; for she teaches temperance and prudence, justice, and courage." These virtues are praised under other names in many passages of Scripture. Prudence is the virtue that disposes practical reason to discern our true good in every circumstance and to choose the right means of achieving it; "the prudent man looks where he is going. Keep sane and sober for your prayers. Prudence is "right reason in action," writes St. Thomas Aquinas, following Aristotle. It is not to be confused with timidity or fear, nor with duplicity or dissimulation. It is called auriga virtutum (the charioteer of the virtues); it guides the other virtues by setting rule and measure. It is prudence that immediately guides the judgment of conscience. The prudent man determines and directs his conduct in accordance with this judgment. With the help of this virtue, we apply moral principles to particular cases without error and overcome doubts about the good to achieve and the evil to avoid. (Catechism of the Catholic Church)

Readings for Sunday

8th February 2026

First Reading

Isaiah 58:6-10

‘Your light shall break forth like the dawn..’

‘Your light shall break forth like the dawn.’

Thus says the Lord:

Is not this the fast that I choose:
to loose the bonds of wickedness,
to undo the straps of the yoke,
to let the oppressed go free,
and to break every yoke?

Is it not to share your bread with the hungry
and bring the homeless poor into your house;
when you see the naked, to cover him,
and not to hide yourself from your own flesh?
Then shall your light break forth like the dawn,
and your healing shall spring up speedily;
your righteousness shall go before you;
the glory of the LORD shall be your rearguard.
Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer;
you shall cry, and he will say, ‘Here I am.’
If you take away the yoke from your midst,
the pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness,
if you pour yourself out for the hungry
and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then shall your light rise in the darkness
and your gloom be as the noonday.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 112(111):4-5. 6-7. 8a, 9. R4a

A light rises in the darkness for the upright.

or: Alleluia.

A light rises in the darkness for the upright;
he is generous, merciful, and righteous.
It goes well for the man who deals generously and lends,
who conducts his affairs with justice.

A light rises in the darkness for the upright.

or: Alleluia.

He will never be moved;
for ever shall the upright be remembered.
He has no fear of evil news;
with a firm heart, he trusts in the LORD.

A light rises in the darkness for the upright.

or: Alleluia.

With a steadfast heart he will not fear.
Open-handed, he gives to the poor;
his justice stands firm for ever.
His might shall be exalted in glory.
A light rises in the darkness for the upright.
or: Alleluia.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 2:1-5

‘I proclaimed to you the mystery of Christ crucified.’

I, when I came to you, brothers and sisters, did not come proclaiming to you the testimony of God with lofty speech or wisdom. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. And I was with you in weakness and in fear and much trembling, and my speech and my message were not in plausible words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

Acclamation before the Gospel

Alleluia, alleluia.

I am the light of the world, says the Lord;
whoever follows me will have the light of life.

Alleluia.

Cf. John 8:12

Gospel

Matthew 5:13-16

‘You are the light of the world.’

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples, ‘You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people’s feet.

‘You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.’

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
